City of Stonecrest Hosts Community Blood Drive

The event is designed to battle seasonal decline in blood donations.

Stonecrest, GA – The City of Stonecrest will host a community blood drive at City Hall on Friday, April 28 at 10 a.m. Stonecrest officials, in partnership with the American Red Cross, are encouraging residents, business owners and area stakeholders to help offset the annual summer decline in blood donations. The event is open to the public.

“The City of Stonecrest is always ready to do our part in our community and in DeKalb County at large,” said Mayor Jazzmin Cobble. “Blood donors play an essential role in saving our communities. With every blood donation, you are providing courage, strength, and hope to families. We are excited to partner with the American Red Cross and look forward to a successful drive.”

Donors are encouraged to schedule an appointment with the American Red Cross online at www.redcrossblood.org, or call 1-800-RED-CROSS. The sponsor code is ‘StonecrestCityHall.’
