Stonecrest Hosts Screen on the Green and Entrepreneur Expo

The event will include food, entertainment as well as a family-friendly film at dusk.

Stonecrest, GA – Stonecrest’s Screen on the Green and Entrepreneur Expo, a family-friendly tradition, returns to the City on Saturday, September 24 at 4 p.m. Hosted by Mayor Jazzmin Cobble and the City of Stonecrest’s Leisure Services Department, this year’s event will be held at Fairington Park.

This is the third year the City will host the event. The program will feature an entrepreneur expo, a live musical performance and activities for the entire family. The event will conclude with a showing of the movie “Sing 2” at 8 p.m.

“We are very excited to announce the return of our Screen on the Green and Entrepreneur Expo. We have always received such great feedback from the community,” said Mayor Jazzmin Cobble. “This event promises to be another incredible afternoon in Stonecrest. Attendees will have an opportunity to enjoy food, a host of activities, and connect with small and youth-owned businesses before settling in for the movie at dusk.”

Stonecrest’s Screen on the Green and Entrepreneur Expo is free and open to the public. Guests are welcome to bring their coolers, umbrellas, lawn chairs and blankets. Visitors will also be able to select from popular local food vendors.

Grills, glass, and alcoholic beverages are prohibited in the park.

“The tradition continues as we transform the park into a theater under the stars,” said Ben Dillard, Director of Leisure Services. “We invite everyone to join us for Screen on the Green and bring their family, friends and neighbors.”

Guests are encouraged to register for the event on Eventbrite. The keyword search is “Stonecrest’s Screen on the Green.”

Adult and youth entrepreneurs interested in participating must complete the online vendor application form no later than Friday, September 9. The vendor registration link is located on the City’s website at www.stonecrestga.gov, once on the site, click the “Screen on the Green and Entrepreneur Expo” banner.

Fairington Park is located at 2831 Fairington Parkway, Stonecrest, GA 30038.
