Stonecrest to Distribute Turkeys for Thanksgiving

More than 140 turkeys will be distributed to combat food insecurity during the holiday season.

Stonecrest, GA – The City of Stonecrest in partnership with Cariblanta Sports & Cultural Club, Ousley United Methodist Church, and First African Community Food Pantry will host its 3rd Annual Thanksgiving Turkey Giveaway on Saturday, November 19 from 12 Noon until 2 p.m.

The drive-through event will take place in Stonecrest at Ousley United Methodist Church. Turkeys and food baskets will be distributed to guests on a first-come, first-served basis.

“Stonecrest is honored to, once again, work with our community partners to continue this time-honored tradition,” said Mayor Jazzmin Cobble. “Access to affordable and healthy food options is a right, not a privilege, that should be provided to all individuals. As we gather with family and friends this holiday season to reflect and share in gratitude, City officials and staff remain focused on fighting food insecurities and providing nutritious meals that uplift our community.”

Ousley United Methodist Church is located at 3261 Panola Road, Stonecrest, GA 30038.
