

City of Stonecrest to begin holding Monthly Press Briefing on March 8th

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: 2/26/2024

Stonecrest, GA - The Stonecrest community is invited to join us for our Monthly Press Briefing, starting March 8th at City Hall. This briefing aims to provide stakeholders with crucial updates on City Hall activities and developments throughout the city.

Press Briefing Dates

March 8th	July 8 th	October 14 th
April 12 th	August 12 th	November 8 th
May 13 th	September 9 th	December 9 th
June 10 th

In addition to our regular meetings, this briefing will offer attendees the opportunity to stay informed about the latest happenings in our city. Mayor Cobble, City Manager Gia Scruggs, and Major Y.C. Baron from the DeKalb County Police Department- East Precinct will be present to provide updates and answer questions.

Doors will open at 11:30am, with the briefing scheduled to commence promptly at noon. For those unable to attend in person, the briefing will be livestreamed on our YouTube channel, providing greater accessibility for members of the community.

"We are committed to having open dialogue with our residents," said Mayor Cobble. "These monthly briefings provide an excellent opportunity for us to engage with the community, answer questions, and keep everyone informed about the important work being done in City Hall and throughout our city."

The Monthly Press Briefing serves as a platform for open dialogue between city officials and residents, fostering a stronger sense of community and collaboration.

We look forward to welcoming you on March 8th.

###

For more information, please contact:

James Upchurch, Director of Communications & PIO

jupchurch@stonecrestga.gov